

Certificate of English Proficiency

This document attests that

Afonso Costa

is certified as having the following CEFR proficiency level as per the English Attack! Assessment Test taken on 31.12.2018

Advanced

C1

I can understand a wide range of complex speech and texts and can express myself fluently in most situations.

President of Entertainment Learning

www.english-attack.com

The Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) was created by the Council of Europe to provide a common basis for describing the skills needed to reach different levels of language proficiency. CEFR levels are based on the ability to communicate and understand, and are widely used internationally as standardized measure of language learning.

